

Port Neches, Texas — As of 10:00am on Friday, November 29, Jefferson County Judge Jeff Branick effectively lifted the evacuation order for areas falling within the 4-mile radius surrounding the TPC Group Port Neches Operations located on FM-366 in Port Neches, Texas, with the exception of designated safety zones in the immediate area of the event. Residents of Groves, Nederland, Port Arthur, and Port Neches that are returning home are advised to use caution as traffic congestion is expected and specific road closures are still in place.

Judge Jeff Branick and city officials from the surrounding areas held a press conference at the Port Neches City Hall (1004 Merriman St, Port Neches, Texas 77651) at 10:00am. Emergency management provided the following list of safety zones;

- No access to Spur 136, north of FM 366
- No access on north end of Magnolia Ave (FM 366) at Park Street.
- No southbound access on FM 366 & Hogaboom is closed
- No access at Grigsby Ave & Spur 136
- Main Street is accessible up to Ave K & Ave L & Park

Unified Command (UC) is pleased to report that the TPC event has been contained at this time. Emergency responders are still working to fully mitigate the incident.

Please stay tuned for more information as it becomes available at  [HYPERLINK "http://www.portnechesresponse.com" ]. You can also follow the official Unified Command social media accounts on Facebook at  [HYPERLINK "https://www.facebook.com/portneches.response.1" ] and on Twitter at @PortNechesUC.

- end -